

Privacy Policy

1. Your contact information

To place an order through the application, you must provide us with your first name, last name, home or other physical address (including street name, district, province), telephone number and other real life personal information. You can make changes to your personal information and make arrangements to correct any mistakes. If you want to track or change the details you share with us, you can log in to your account details by clicking on the Subscriptions link on the home page. You may have more than one registered address, depending on your location. Some of your personal information (name, surname, registered address and phone number to send your order) are shared with the dealership you ordered. This information is also used to improve the use of the application, to contact with you, to meet company requirements and in cases where it is legally required. This information may be shared with our employees or third parties in any of the stages of the order or may be used in the analysis and support of your use of the App. We do not share your information with third parties or sell your information to third parties without your consent, except in the areas specified in our privacy policy.

2. Your phone number

To create an account, you must have a phone number. Your phone number is used to contact you, to confirm your order and when you place an order, to inform you of a problem with your order or to inform you about promotions. If you do not share your phone number, you cannot register and order from the application. Some of your personal information (name, surname, registered address to send your order) is shared with the brand dealership you ordered. This information is also used to improve the use of the Application, to communicate with you, for internal requirements and when required legally. This information may be shared with our employees or third parties in any of the stages of their order or may be used in the analysis and support of your use of the mobile application. We do not share your information with third parties or sell your information to third parties without your consent, except in the areas specified in our privacy policy.

3. Your order information

We can collect information such as payment method, order details, order amount and discount coupons used. This information is used to analyze and improve the use of the application. This information may be shared with our employees or third parties in any of the stages of the delivery of your order, or may be used in the analysis and support of your use of the Application.

4. Navigation and click information

While browsing the app, navigation and click information about the pages you clicked and the buttons and links you clicked are kept to access information such as the pages you visit, the time you spent on a page, the time you ordered. This information does not reveal your identity or directly associated with you. This information is used for campaigns, promotions and referrals that may be of interest to you on the completion, analysis and development of your orders through the application, increasing the use of the application, providing information in legally required situations and websites of the Application or third party. This information may be shared with our employees or the third parties concerned in any of the stages of their order or may be used in the analysis and support of your use of the Application.

5.Cookie information and information held on devices

In order to use our service more quickly and effectively, we store the session cookie on your device. Cookies are small text files that save your preferences to your computer or smartphone or tablet when you visit the App. Cookies are used to remember what products you have in your shopping cart, to recognize you when you re-enter the application, to provide you with the best quality service in such transactions as the advertisement and ads that you may be interested in. They do not contain any personal or private information. They won't harm your computer, phone or tablet. You must allow these cookies to place an order through the application. If you wish, you can prevent the retention of this information by making changes to your device settings. However, if you do this, you may not be able to take full advantage of the services provided. You may encounter cookies from third parties that have ads on the application, but they are also under our control.
